VOTERS' LIST STILL OPEN

Date Has Been Extended for Two Weeks Longer This Spring.

The date for closing the voters' lists, which usually close on the first Monday of April, has been extended on the present occasion to the third Monday of April, in order to permit of more extended registration. The court of revision will open thirty days after the close of the lists.

That first gray hair!

Oh how disappointed you are to see it.—Gray hairs take away that youthful appearance that you are so anxious to, and should keep,—for beauty and good looks depend so much upon natural colored, thick, glossy and healthy hair.

Every one is attracted to the woman with beautiful hair. Why not have it—get rid of the gray hairs—keep them out altogether by using

HAY'S HAIR HEALTH.

You'll be surprised how quickly it will restore those gray hairs to their natural color and how well it will keep them so.

It is not a dye but the most satisfactory and reliable restorer.

Never Knew Accused.

Mr. Flumerfelt, over whose signature the affidavit was subscribed, stated that he did not know Houssein Rahim and to his knowledge had never sworn out the affidavit while Rahim was present, the signature on the document was his, but he believed that he had been the victim of some smart rogue who had inserted the application, unsigned, among other documents of a similar nature in his office before he filed them away in his safe on September 14 of last year.
He could not swear to this, but it was a supposition which in his mind explained the issuing of the affidavit.

"You are only supposing," said Prosecutor MacKay. "Give me the facts, not theories."

Mr. Flumerfelt, in response to the questions of the crown prosecutor, swore absolutely that he did not know the accused, and had never knowingly issued a voter's declaration to a Hindu.

Detective Thompson, when called to the stand said that he had known the accused for some months, and had been present to assist in his arrest on the day after the provincial elections.
In a search of the prisoner's effects he had found a quantity of I. W. W. literature. The detective also spoke of finding a petition among Rahim's effects signed by a number of Hindus and asking for the removal of Mayos Findlay from office.

When asked by the counsel for the defence if he had found among the papers of the accused a certain envelope with a Conservative pamphlet in it, soliciting his vote at the recent election Detective Thompson stated that he could not swear as he had not made an inventory of the effects.

His Entry Into Canada.

Mr. W. C. Hopkinson, Dominion Immigration Inspector, and official Hindu interpreter, said he had first seen the accused eighteen months ago on his arrival on the steamship Moana.
At that time he said Rahim had stated that he was on a tour of the world and proposed visiting the eastern American states.

On the strength of this and because he had a ticket for Montreal, Mr. Hopkinson said he recommended to the department that Rahim be allowed the privileges of a tourist.
Rahim departed and he did not see him again for over two months when he arrived back in Vancouver, stating that he had completed business in Montreal and would shortly return to India.

Mr. Hopkinson swore to Rahim's signature on the voter's declaration and stated that he had seen him in a polling booth during the recent election at which time, he said, the accused had been acting in the capacity of scrutineer for one of the political parties.

Mr. George McCrossan, prisoner's counsel, asked that the case be dismissed on the grounds that the prosecution had failed to prove two things, first, that Rahim was a Hindu and an alien, and second, that the declaration had never been properly executed.

In summing up, his worship considered the evidence sufficient to send the accused up for trial to the higher court, for while in his opinion perjury might not have actually been committed something decidedly irregular had been engineered and it should be left for the superior courts to find out.

Magistrate Shaw then formally committed the prisoner for trial.

COMPLETELY CURED OF DYSPESIA

By Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets

We are continually hearing from grateful people who have had experiences like that of Miss Alice E. Cooper, of Niagara Falls, Ont., who writes:

"I wish to express my gratitude to you for the benefit I received from your most wonderful Dyspepsia Tablets.
Having taken other medicines without having received the slightest relief, I heard of your Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets and thought I would give them a trial. I have been completely cured of dyspepsia. I will be only too pleased to advise any one troubled with dyspepsia to give them a fair trial."

Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets not only give the immediate relief from heartburn, flatulence, acidity of the stomach and biliousness, which is so much needed, but if taken regularly for a few days or weeks they completely cure the most aggravated cases of stomach trouble.
When for 50c. you can get a box from your druggist, why go on suffering?
