Section 9: Research and Compliance

At UFV, teaching and research are intimately related. Provost & VP Academic Eric Davis has said “Creating opportunities for undergraduate research is one of UFV’s highest priorities.” One way we do this is by supporting established and novice faculty researchers in their endeavours. They bring their excitement for research to the classroom, and engage students as research assistants and co-authors on publications. We believe that students who are provided with experiential learning enjoy greater success in their education and future careers. We know that having research experience has a high impact on student learning.

- 26% increase in students participating in Student Research Day over last year, rising from 117 to 147 participants!
- 7% more research assistants were hired through the Career Centre work study program.
- 78 work-study research assistantships were offered.
- Researchers hired an additional 104 student researchers with grant and contract funding.
- 25 Undergraduate Research Excellence awards totaling $25,750 were presented – the highest numbers to date!
